

UPDATED PHONE GUIDELINES

MOBILE PHONES AT SIENA COLLEGE

THE UNIVERSITY OF SIENA POLICY:

“The University of Siena is committed to the responsible use of mobile phones. Mobile phones should be used for work-related purposes only. They should not be used for entertainment, social media, or other non-work-related activities. The University reserves the right to monitor mobile phone usage and to take disciplinary action for misuse.”

All mobile phone use during class hours (8:40 AM to 3:20 PM) is prohibited.

Non-work-related mobile phone use during class hours is considered a violation of the University's policy.

Non-work-related mobile phone use during class hours is considered a violation of the University's policy. This includes using mobile phones for entertainment, social media, or other non-work-related activities.

Prohibited mobile phone use during class hours includes using mobile phones for entertainment, social media, or other non-work-related activities. This includes using mobile phones for entertainment, social media, or other non-work-related activities.

The University reserves the right to monitor mobile phone usage and to take disciplinary action for misuse.

RECESS AND LUNCHTIME

Students are permitted to use mobile phones during recess and lunchtime for personal use. However, mobile phone use during class hours is prohibited.

Mobile phone use during class hours is prohibited. This includes using mobile phones for entertainment, social media, or other non-work-related activities.

The University reserves the right to monitor mobile phone usage and to take disciplinary action for misuse.